

Food Lover's Market will become another anchor tenant at Norwood Mall later this year.

Food Lover's moves into Norwood

NORWOOD Mall has clinched a deal for a new Food Lover's Market to join its anchor tenants Woolworths, Dis-Chem and Pick n Pay.

Food Lover's Market – which combines the best of similar markets in the US, Europe, Australia and the Far East – will open in August 2012 in an 1 800m² re-configuration of the mall which will improve custommer access and flows for the mall and its new extension.

Situated on the corner of Hamlin Street and 6th Avenue, Norwood Mall is owned by property investment company Cavaleros Group, with Retail Network Services as specialist retail leasing company.
